

Many critics have claimed that William Golding, in his novel Lord of the Flies, writes about humanity as though we are naturally savages. In the notes of his novel Golding claims that “the theme is an attempt to trace the defects of society back to the defects of human nature,” (204).

Think back on our week without a proper classroom system. Do you agree with Golding, that we are essentially savages? Or, do you disagree?

Please craft a 5 paragraph essay that address whether you believe Golding was right in his assessment of humanity.

Make sure to include:

- An introduction - This needs a hook, an intro, and a clear thesis!
  - A claim - This is your thesis.
- Three body paragraphs - Follow T(SQA<sup>2</sup>) format!
- An address of your critics - What would you say to people who disagree?
- A conclusion
