

Chapter 21 Writing

“At every step he was incited to do some strange, wild, wicked thing or other, with a sense that it would be at once involuntary and intentional...”

In Chapter 20, The Minister in a Maze, Dimmesdale finds himself tempted to ruin the lives of several community members by blaspheming, speaking ill, or just being a jerk. Create another encounter with a community member in the style of Hawthorne that shows this, paying special attention to the emotional state that Dimmesdale finds himself in.

Minimum 1 paragraph with dialogue between the characters. Additional 3rd person narration to show what is going on in his head is also required. Finally, you must use at least 4 of our vocabulary words. (I suggest ignominy...).
