

A Zora Neale Hurston Seminar

Name: _____

Your instructions for today:

1. Please take a seat at either of the table groups.
2. Take out your copies of "Sweat" and "The Gilded Six-Bits" as well as a writing utensil.
3. Consider, then answer, the following prompt:

What do you think Hurston trying to show us with these stories?

Please write one question you have about these two stories in this box.

4. Go around the group. Each member will share his or her question. Please discuss each question, as well as any others that arise, until you feel the topic is exhausted. Then move on to the next groupie.

Group Member	Question	General Discussion Notes

Exit Slip: Please answer on reverse.
Which question did you find the most interesting? What did you learn as a result?