

Chapters 6-9

Turning and turning in the widening gyre
The falcon cannot hear the falconer;
Things fall apart; the centre cannot hold;
Mere anarchy is loosed upon the world. ~From The Second Coming By Yeats

Image from <http://mccoyle.lib.siu.edu/jmccall/jones/>

Free Response Journal Entry #1

Quote & Page number

Your Response

Think about writing about the text when:

- You are moved by what is being said
- You do not understand what is being said
- You have a question about what is being said
- You agree with what is being said
- You disagree with what is being said

This may include:

- Powerful dialogue stated by a character
- Words that seem out of character
- Repetition of symbols or images in the book
- Foreshadowing, metaphors
- Emotional scenes
- Actions you did not expect

You might:

- Discuss why you chose the passage
- Discuss what it reminds you of or makes you feel
- Argue with a character or the author about a turn of events
- Question the motives of a character
- Explain why a setting, symbol are meaningful to you
- Make predictions about what will happen
- Compare this to a real life situation

Try starting with:

This passage reminds me.....

When I read this I felt .....

I enjoyed this section because .....

I can't believe.....

I was surprised.....

You need 5 entries for chapters 6-9